

MRS. RAHATUN NESA ALI MEMORIAL ISTE NATIONAL AWARD FOR THE BEST WOMEN ENGINEERING COLLEGE OF INDIA

Nominations are invited from the AICTE approved Women Engineering Colleges/University of India.

About the Award

In order to promote women engineers in the country, Dr. S.M. Ali, Section Chairman, ISTE Orissa Section and Director (Membership), The Institution of Engineers (India) generously donated Rs.1,00,000/- to ISTE for instituting the National Award namely Mrs. Rahatun Nesa Ali Memorial ISTE National Award in the memory of his late mother Mrs. Rahatun Nesa Ali.

Objective

To encourage the women engineers and the women empowerment of the country where the dynamic leadership of engineering colleges/University having the vital role for the development of the nation through proper women empowerment.

Award

The Award consists of a Plaque and a Citation. Award will be presented every year during the Annual National Convention of ISTE organized in December.

Eligibility

AICTE approved Women Engineering Colleges/University conducting undergraduate and post-graduate programmes in Engineering and Technology.

How to Apply for the Award

Nominations are to be sent in the prescribed nomination form which can be had from the ISTE Office in Delhi. The nomination form consists of two parts:

- Part I : General Information and Development Status
- Part II : Performance Indices

The weightage given to Part I and Part II in the selection of the Award Winner is in the ration 40 : 60.

The Awards Committee may visit the institution, if found necessary.

Address for sending nomination:

The Executive Secretary
Indian Society for Technical Education
Shaheed Jeet Singh Marg,
New Delhi - 110 016